

May Half-term Science Camp 2022

Choose from daily or weekly camps, 9.30-3.30 (8.30am free early drop-off),
4-7 and 8-12 years, (age adjusted & separated groups)

- Holiday Inn Kensington High Street, Wrights Lane (off Marloes Road), London, W8 5SP,
(with secure outdoor space for breaks), 2 mins from Kensington High Street and 10 mins from Earls Court tube station)

Mon-Wed, 30 May-1 June 2022 | Scientific Journey through the World

Day 1, Monday, 30 May 2022

- Lost in Space: Explore the Universe and Galaxies
- How it all Started: Big Bang Theory
- How Stars were born?
- What are Supernovae and who was Fritz Zwicky?
- The Physics of the Sun

Day 2, Tuesday, 31 May June 2022

- Back on Earth: Size, Shape, Spin and Age
- How Henry Cavendish and Isaac Newton helped answer some Important Questions
- Why doesn't the Moon Fall Down?
- Structure of the Moon, how Tides work and the Moons missions
- What if the Moon didn't Exist?
- Looking for Fossils and Dinosaur Hunters and Mary Anning's Excavations

Day 3, Wednesday, 1 June 2022

- Rocks and how they change (Astrogeology Mars in test tubes?)
- The Fire Below: Volcanoes
- Tectonic Plates and Richter Scale
- What is Air?
- Weather and the Life Cycle of a Raindrop
- Hot and Cold: What is Atmosphere?
- Can We create Atmosphere on Mars?
- Let's Explore the Latest Missions to Mars