

May Half-term Camp - Fascinating Animal Kingdom Tue-Fri, 28-31 May 2019

Daily Tuesday-Friday, 9.30-3.30 (8.45am free early drop-off), 4-7 and 8-12 years (age adjusted & separated groups)

- The Academy, Holiday Inn London Kensington Forum, entrance Courtfield Road, London SW7 4DN, (with secure outdoor space for breaks), 2 mins from Gloucester Road tube station

- Swiss Cottage Library, 88 Avenue Road, London NW3 3HA

Day 1 - Tuesday, 28 May 2019

- Zoology, diversity of the animal world
- Classifications: Vertebrates and invertebrates
- Skeletons vs Exoskeletons
- Water Bears and other extremophiles
- Jane Goodall, Dian Fossey and the great apes

Day 2 - Wednesday, 29 May 2019

- Palaeontology and dinosaurs
- Should extinct species be brought back to life?
- How do animals grow?
- How do Birds Fly?

Day 3 - Thursday, 30 May 2019

- Animal Superpowers
- Bats, Dolphins and echolocation
- Bees, snakes, shrimps and their amazing vision
- Octopuses and other masters of disguise

Day 4 - Friday, 31 May 2019

- Puzzling platypuses
- Fish and other animals of the sea
- Fantastic insects and why they are important